NOTICE.

THE subscribers have much pleasure in announcing the sale of the choice collection, forming the present library, believing it to be the best of its size, without exception, that to their knowledge has ever been offered by public sale in this country.

In thus announcing the sale, it is perhaps as well to say, in answer to many inquiries, that the only reason for this disposition of the library, is the necessity that it involves for continued attention to its enlargement, with works of the same general character, as regards quality of copy, or value of edition, requiring as it does more time and attention than can be spared by the owner from his professional duties.

The value of the collection, will, perhaps, be better understood, when we state, that in but few instances has a volume, or set, been secured by the proprietor, when a better would be likely to occur at a future time, the price being always a secondary matter, the beauty and condition of the work desired the primary one.

In pointing out the general character of the collection, as well as some of its specialties, we will restate what we have said in the advertisement of the sale.

The collection embraces the finest editions of Addison ; Lord Bacon ; Burke ; Burnet ; Butler ; D'Israeli ; Hallam ; Sully ; Montaigne ; Fuller ; Rabelais ; Boccaccio ; and others. The Oxford Classics, namely, Hume and Smollett ; Gibbon ; Robertson ; and Johnson, with Life by Boswell. Sir Thomas Browne's Works; Dodsley and Dilkes's Old Plays; the Writings of Franklin; Washington; John Adams; Webster; and Everett. The Works of Ben Jonson; Massinger; Shirley; and Middleton: Grant White's edition of Shakspeare; Bancroft; Strype's Ecclesiastical Memorials and Annals; Walpole's Royal and Noble Authors; Dibdin's Typographical Antiquities; all the above, with others, on large paper, and nearly all with uncut edges: Beaumont and Fletcher; The Harleian Miscellany; Milton, — Pickering's fine edition; The Retrospective Review; The Percy and Shakspeare Society Publications; Bewick's Birds and Quadrupeds, largest paper; Walton and Cotton's Angler, with artists' proofs of the plates; Dibdin's Bibliographical Works, a fine uncut set, several of them the author's own copies; fine sets of Lodge's and Knight's Portraits; all in the finest condition, many in elegant and artistic bindings, the whole forming a choice selection, and one requiring years of care, and great expense to complete, even to its present size, and what would now require both more time and money, even if such copies could be procured at any price.

The books are warranted as described, the whole having been carefully collated by Wm. F. Fowle, Esq., to whom the owner intrusted the preparation of the catalogue. The collection of Engravings, although quite a small one, is of as high a character as the library. It includes a fine set of Toschi's Correggio Frescos, proofs before letters, and specimens in proof states of works by Mandel, Lefevre, Strange, Anderloni, Martinet, Desnoyers, and other noted Engravers of the Modern School.

SUPPRESSED BY THE AUTHOR.

London, 1797

"In the first edition of the Bibliomania is a curious note respecting these poems, from which it appears that 500 copies were printed, the major part of which were destroyed. 'My only consolation is' (says the author), 'that the volume is exceedingly rare.' Brockett's copy sold for £1 2s., and Bindley's for £1 18s. — Lowndes.

- 146 DIBDIN, REV. T. F. The Bibliomania ; or, Book Madness, containing some Account of the History, Symptoms, and Cure of this Fatal Disease. In an Epistle addressed to Richard Heber, Esq. 8vo, boards, uncut.

FIRST EDITION.

London, 1809

"The Bibliomania is written in dialogues or conversations, the characters introduced are well-known book collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of Books and Book Collectors, and an account of the rarer articles in their collections, and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. It will be always consulted as an authority." — Lowndes.

"You have contrived to strew flowers over a path which, in other hands, would have proved a very dull one ; and all Bibliomanes must remember you long, as he who first united their antiquarian details with good-humored raillery and cheerfulness." — Sir Walter Scott to Dr. Dibdin.

Charles B. Richardson, New York, 1862

The copy of the original edition in the Crowninshield library was sold by its purchaser, Henry Stevens, of London, to the British Museum for one hundred and fifty guineas. The Museum afterwards returned it to Mr. Stevens. It was in his possession in 1867. His price for it remained the same.

"In the reproduction of this quaint volume every word, every letter, and indeed every point has been sedulously collated with a perfect impression of the original work struck at Cambridge in the year 1640. Indeed, so exact and faithful has the compositor been in following the original copy, that the bad spacing, omission of spaces, irregular justification, bad divisions, broken type, letters inverted, mixed lower-case letters with italics, and typographical errors are strictly reproductions of the printer's errors of the olden time." — Preface.

Dr. Nathaniel Bradstreet Shurtleff, the present Mayor of the city of Boston, has the copy that belonged to Richard Mather, one of the compilers of the collection. It bears Mather's autograph on the lining of one of the covers. Dr. Shurtleff superintended this reprint through the Riverside Press.

"After such conscientious examination of his work as the importance of it demands; after a painful comparison, note by note, and reading by reading, of his edition with those of Messrs. Knight, Collier, and Dyce, our opinion of his ability and fitness for his task has been heightened and confirmed. Not that we always agree with him;—but Mr. White has generally shown so just a discrimination, that there are few instances where we dissent. We have subjected his volumes to a laborious examination, such as few books receive, because the text of Shakespeare is a matter of common and great concern, and they have borne the trial, except in a few impertinent particulars, admirably. Mr. Dyce and Mr. Singer are only dry commonplace-books of illustrative quotations; Mr. Collier has not wholly recovered from his 'corr. fo.' madness; Mr. Knight (with many eminent advantages as an editor) is too diffuse; and we repeat our honest persuasion, that Mr. White has thus far given us the best extant text, while the fullness of his notes gives his edition almost the value of a variorum." — James Russell Lowell.
